

EXPLORE EXTRAORDINARY HIGH-ALTITUDE MALBEC

Discover how Argentina's flagship Malbec is reaching new heights through two bottles from the prestigious Zuccardi winery in this in-depth, sommelier-led tasting.

Old vine Malbec grown at nearly 4,000-foot altitudes is aged in both concrete and oak to create a fragrant and silky wine, with fruit and floral notes and distinctive texture and minerality on the palate.

Named for Sebastian's father, who began the family's quest to make their top wine, this Malbec comes from some of Zuccardi's highest vineyards. Aged in oak foudres, it is exceptionally complex, with intense mixed fruit and spice alongside a robust, well-structured palate.
